Charles Court Opera present

MIRROR MIRROR
A Snow White Pantomime

We are delighted that Charles Court Opera are back at the Vera Fletcher Hall with their highly acclaimed boutique panto, MIRROR MIRROR. Fresh from their successful run at London's Kings Head Theatre, it promises a stylish, alternative, inventive take on the tale of Snow White, a smart, sharp, glittering treat for all.

The annual 'Boutique Pantos' offer a dazzling array of musical numbers, sung by a stunning cast, with audience participation, custard pies, baking, and a ludicrously tall Dame.

The panto has been so successful at the Vera Fletcher Hall in the past that we are again offering two opportunities to see the show, on Friday 15th and Saturday 16th January, making it a fantastic to start to the New Year and indeed the Spring Season.

CAST: Nichola Jolley, Matthew Kellett, Simon Masterton-Smith, Amy J Payne, Andrea Tweedale, and director John Savourin as the Dame.
