DEREK GRANT presents

BLOWIN' IN THE WIND

The music of some of the greatest singer-songwriters of all time is featured in the new music show Blowin' in the Wind which plays at The Vera Fletcher Hall, Thames Ditton, on Fri 28th April at 7.30 p.m.

The show will be a journey through the inspirational songs of Bob Dylan, Joan Baez, Joni Mitchell, John Lennon and others. This great music is performed by international multi-instrumentalists and vocalists Andante, comprising Vee Sweeney and Mark Rowson. Vee explains, "We are not trying to impersonate anyone, no way! We just celebrate this incredible music - terrific ballads, love songs and some wonderfully poetic stuff too. Just listen to the lyrics. We were brought up with these great artists and they have become part of all of our lives."

Dylan classics like Mr Tambourine Man and Like a Rolling Stone will feature alongside great Joan Baez classics like Diamonds and Rust, and The Night They Drove Old Dixie Down. Hear Joni Mitchell's Both Sides Now, John Lennon's iconic Imagine and many more. Book your big yellow taxi now and look forward to an evening of terrific music.
